HON. WILL C. WOOD

One of the state officers to be filled this year is that of state superintendent of public instruction. The incumbent, Hon. Will C. Wood, will be re-elected for a second term. Mr. Wood will probably make the race easy, as it is doubtful if anyone would have the temerity to try to unseat him. His record during the first term was excellent. He has been successful in securing the best state superintendent of public instruction in the history of the state. Mr. Wood has not only attended to his duties at home but he has also been a character of national reputation. In school affairs, twice during the term he has been offered educational positions which would have paid more salary, but he has refused them. He has been able to continue his work for the boys and girls of California. Mr. Wood should receive the largest elementary vote ever given to a state official.

SOME IMPRESSIONS

Last Sunday we went over to Halfon Point to watch our neighbors of the Holy Ghost Church. The festival is called. All of the Portuguese population takes part in the exercises and it is a time for merriment and a time for reflection and a time for religious devotion.

The boys who belong to the fire department for the past two weeks learning how to run and operate the new fire engine. It is certainly a fine thing to see a stream of water the length of a block. Redwood City has always been blessed with a good fire department. There are boys and men who are willing to get out for the fire. They are ready to protect our property and are ready to lay down their lives and risk their lives for the good of the community. There have been boys and men in Redwood City as long as we can remember. They are certainly deserving of our thanks and we hope they will enjoy working with their new engine.

The Mykline Boulevard is causing some people a great deal of worry. Some want it east and some want it west and the others want it right square in the middle. As far as we are willing to take a good fire department, just so it is put. The road is needed and the quicker it is finished the sooner it will be a more comfortable and a safer highway on Sunday. Personally we have feeling that the state highway department will do about as it pleases after it has heard all the claims. We have come to put the road in a certain place and after it has been finished for two weeks everyone will have forgotten there was ever a question as to its location.

There will be one big time next week in San Francisco. The thirty-third annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce is coming. 20,000 strong. They will be the biggest crowd San Francisco has ever seen. They will overflow the borders of the city and will take in the sights and scenes of San Francisco. The things they will see while they are in this city will cause them to stop and think. The highways are wonderful. We have traveled quite extensively in our day, but we have never seen anything so beautiful as the highway from Millbrae to Menlo Park. The trees on either side are green. Here and there you catch a vista of hills or bay and on every side are homes that are both attractive and inviting. Many a stranger will want to live in California after he has seen California and San Mateo county and Shriners are particularly good people to have in our midst.

This is graduation time. For the next few weeks boys and girls all over this grand old state of ours will be wearing the caps and gowns of the colleges and universities. They will tell to the world that the holders of these degrees are graduates from this or that school.

This period is the greatest time in the lives of these future citizens. They are learning the fruits of accomplishment. They have successfully completed that which they were attempting. We wish that these bright young men and women take this feeling with them every day of their lives. The knowledge that we have done something that is great and that we have made a contribution to the world is a feeling that should be a part of their lives. It is great to be young. It is fine to be happy and it is wonderful to be a graduate.

DONALD STEWART TO MANAGE MARKET

Closely following the announcement that Martin Madden, former secretary of William L. Stephenson, had been placed in charge of the new public market in Oakland as the new manager of the market in this city at Twelfth and Market streets, announced that Madden had been made today by William Houghtaling and Lewis Carpenter, organizers of the $1,000,000 Crystal Palace Market to be erected at Eleventh and Market streets, that the services as general manager of the market had been secured of A. Donald Stewart. Stewart took hold of the work today and will have three or four days of the entire program of leasing the floor space and constructing and erecting the market.

The Crystal Palace Market will be the largest market in the world, covering a total of 25,000 feet of floor space, and takes its name from the fact that it will be constructed mainly of glass and steel. It will have three entrances, one on Market, one on Mission and one on Eleventh between Market and Mission.

Stewart is nationally known in the food products line and particularly in the grocery industry, and for many years as national sales manager for a large Montgomery Ward concern and the reputation of being one of the shrewdest and best posted men in his line in this country. He has been a great contributor as an authority to trade publications.

Stewart recently organized the string of Southern grocery stores down the peninsula, which have been pronounced the most successful chain stores in the west.

Stewart said today that he had every expectation of speedily filling the space at present available in the projected market, and that he believed the community needs of San Francisco demanded such a huge centralized shopping place located at the very hub of the city's transportation system.

Headquarters of the market are at the California-Pacific Building, 105 Montgomery street.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING

Notice is hereby given that the regular annual meeting of the Menlo Park School District, California, which is going ahead in the right direction, the center now owns the old Congregational church building, in which a branch of the county library is housed. East week an entertainment was given for the purpose of raising money for the gymnasium for the boys of Colma. A goodly sum was realized and we hope the project will be successful. We have a well equipped gymnasium and swimming tank. Things of this kind are the development of good citizens.

Melville Ralston, who has been ill with rheumatism for some time past, was in Redwood City this week seeking medical aid.

SAN CARLOS NOTES

That those interested may be advised, what you advertised as already a fact. "My interest in the matter, if I had to pay my property to the state of California, but the principle of the thing is what I object to. The Mercantile Trust Company, as successor of the San Carlos Park Syndicate, in my opinion, has assumed obligations to the state of California, which they have not assumed. I am sure that the courts would hold that the contract they made with me would compel them to deliver the property with the proper sewerage system and that I should receive the same. That a sewer system is not complete with no outlet that is satisfactory."

MENLO PARK NEWS

The Montgomerys leave. Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Montgomery and their pretty daughter, Mary, left on Tuesday for New York. Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery will return to California in July, going to Stockton, where Mr. Montgomery will take charge of a large parish. On Friday night last the popular rector was given a farewell dinner in the parish hall by his many friends and admirers. Rev. W. A. Brewer of Burlingame and Rev. Mr. Maloney of San Francisco were the clergymen present. During the dinner Mr. Montgomery was presented by his parishioners with a gold wrist watch. Mrs. Montgomery and her daughter were each given a gold mounted fountain pen. A Shriners pin was also given to the pastor by the Boy Scouts. Mr. Montgomery was visibly touched by these tokens of remembrance. He has been the rector of this parish since the church for the past nine years. Rev. Harold Kelly of Oakland will temporarily fill the pulpit of Trinity church. He is a native of Menlo Park.

Culmination of Romance.
At the close of the school year on June 16 a very pretty romance that had its inception in childhood days will culminate in marriage when Prof. Adrian Carleton will lead Miss Genevieve Gilchrist to the altar. Mr. Carleton is the manual training teacher in the Redwood City grammar school and is an exemplary young man. He is a graduate of State Teachers' College at San Jose. Miss Gilchrist is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gilchrist and a sister of Mrs. Joseph Nash. She is a young lady of rare beauty and with a charming personality that has won her many friends on the peninsula. After the wedding the young people will enjoy a motor trip to Southern California and expect to be gone for some two weeks.

Card Party Plans.
A card party for the benefit of St. Joseph's parochial school will be held in Native Sons' Hall on June 8. Valuable prizes have been secured for the occasion. As repairs are needed on the school buildings money will have to be secured to make the required improvements. The cause is a good one and all should contribute as liberally as possible.

Larrecos on the Job.
Bernard O. Larrecos, the new postmaster, took over the office at the close of business on May 31, relieving E. J. Crane, who was postmaster for over eight years. The only change in the personnel of the office will be the appointment of Mrs. Larrecos as chief deputy. Mr. Crane, the retiring official, made an excellent postmaster, giving the public good service and the department a splendid administration. Mr. Larrecos is a good business man and an accountant with fine clerical ability. He is an over-achiever and a graduate of Sequoyia Union High School. All bespeak success for the young postmaster.

Estate Appraisal.
H. W. Schuchman, an insurance tax appraiser of the estate of Mary Pauline Payne, who died in New York while on her way to Europe February 11, has filed his inventory and appraisal in the county clerk's office at Redwood City. The total value of the estate is placed at $250,000. It consists of an equity in a large apartment house in New York, valuable property in the commercial district of San Francisco, cash, stocks and bonds. The beautiful home here was sold to Leon Douglas a short time ago for $175,000. It cost her close to half a million. Ten years ago Mrs. Payne was reputed to be worth $10,000,000. The appraiser's report is a complete surprise to everyone who supposed the estate worth millions. Nearly all of the estate will go to her youngest son, Arthur Payne.

Mrs. Sigmond Stern was hostess at her Menlo Park home Wednesday afternoon at a tea in honor of the stars of the operatic cat who are to be heard at the Stanford stadium in the series of productions opening this evening.

The Forty Hours Devotion will commence at the Church of the Nativity tomorrow morning at 10:30 mass and conclusion on Tuesday morning next. Noted pulpits orators will deliver sermons during the exercises.

Woodside

Woodside, in many respects, is a truly rural community, but anyone who saw the array of automobiles on Saturday night would have admitted that we were cosmopolitan if not metropolitan.

The occasion was the annual entertainment given for the benefit of the Sunday school by the pupils thereof. In most elaborate costumes, from the Grecian period to modern times, they presented a Temple of Fame, in which Barbara Pond was the goddess and had for her attendants Helen Hallett, Donald Wilkie, Stanley Hudec and Bud Craven. Herbert Raymond, Jr., was the page. Queen Isabella of Spain was represented by Kathleen Fringile. Columbus by Stanford MacDonald. Ruth by Mildred Fraser. Jean d'Arc by Kathleen Fringile. David and Jonathan by Peter Bond and Jonathan by Alvin Hallett. Pocahontas and an Indian boy by Alvin Hallett and Lester Taylor. Bazarib by Albert Kruse. Queen Elizabeth by Evelyn Meyer. Xantippe by Susan Silva. Mother Goose by Edith Chamberlain. Old King Cole by Jacques Adloff. Simple Simon by Roland Craven. Old Mother Hubbard by Viola Kelly. Little Bo-peep by Alice Zappell. King and Queen by Wesley Wilson and Evelyn Winkler. Little Miss Muffet by Gladys Kelly. Diogenes by Covington Fringile. David and Jonathan by Peter Bond and Fred Blackington. Florence Nightingale by Anna Hudec. George Washington by Jack Marshall. Washington by Edith Farrar. Miriam and her maidens by Phyllis Blackington. Rose Emanual. Ruth Craven and Annie Farrar. Grace Darling by Helen Abraham. Shakespeare by Selah Chamberlain. Jennie Lind by Cora Hordford and Lafayette by Robert Dickinson.

After considering the claims of each to the laurel wreath, the fame of the goddess bestowed that tribute upon Florence Nightingale. Mrs. E. R. Diamond had charge of the decoration of the hall, which was made beautiful with Woodside flowers and greenery. Miss May Huddard was the director of the performance. Mrs. John D. Gish furnished the incidental music and the costumes were designed for the party by the ladies of the sewing circle of Woodside.

Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Stevens of the First Congregational church of Redwood City were the guests of the Woodside Sunday school at the entertainment.

Rev. Benjamin St. John, pastor of the Woodside church, preached the conference sermon at the church convocation recently held at Santa Cruz. Mr. Messer and family of San Francisco have rented the Abecassis place for the summer. They were here last summer at Dr. Ross's "Little Forest" and found such tonic in the Woodside air that they returned this year.

William Roth of the Mason Navigation Company is moving into the J. A. Folger place, which he has leased for two years.

Mrs. William Diamond, who has just returned from the Islands, was the weekend guest of Mrs. E. R. Diamond.

Mrs. Charles Newhall of Berkeley, together with some friends from Carmel, are spending this week and will attend the opera performance at the Stanford stadium on Saturday night.

Mrs. Bogle, mother of George Bogle of Woodside, was taken seriously ill on Saturday night. She is being attended by Dr. Crane, who is living at the Keenan place on Albion avenue.

J. B. Crowley, wholesale dry goods man of San Francisco, has purchased the Hillside home at Woodside, which includes the children of Menlo Park's wealthiest families.

J. E. Newman, the tactful and prepossessing chairman of the P. O. Company, who maintains a palatial home in Marin Oaks, will conduct bachelor apartments in San Francisco for the next two months. His family have gone to Carmel for the summer. Mr. Newman will make week end trips to the classic shades of that historic place by the sea.

L. E. Taylor, a former Menlo Park young man and youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Taylor, was united in marriage to Miss Clara Albee in the Stanford Memorial church at high noon on Thursday, the Rev. G. H. Bogle officiating. The bride was attended by Mrs. Harold Jamison and the bridegroom by George Polson of San Francisco. Little Miss Vera Taylor, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. A wedding breakfast was served to the members of the bridal party at the home of the bride. Mr. Taylor was born at the old Stanford stock farm when his father was in charge of the shearing of the operatic cat who are to be heard at the Stanford stadium in the series of productions opening this evening.

The Forty Hours Devotion will commence at the Church of the Nativity tomorrow morning at 10:30 mass and conclusion on Tuesday morning next. Noted pulpits orators will deliver sermons during the exercises.
